

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please read all terms and conditions carefully before accessing any of the services/resources available via the CoreSciences website, which are provided by CoreSciences exclusively subject to your agreement to the Terms and Conditions below.

SUBSCRIPTION FEE

All subscriptions are pre-paid. CoreSciences reserves the right to change the amount of any fees for subscriptions to the CoreSciences service, with any such changes to fees being listed on the CoreSciences website. CoreSciences will endeavour to notify you of an upcoming subscription expiry with an invitation for renewal of subscription, if you have opted in to receive such notifications, but it is your responsibility to renew your subscription before its expiry date and CoreSciences is not responsible for any break in service due to an expired subscription. You are advised to renew your subscription at least two weeks before your account is due to expire to avoid any interruption to the services. Please note that we are unable to accept cancellations or make refunds after an account has been activated. We do not offer trial periods as preview resources are freely available through the website.

ACCESS

Subscribing as a school will give you an admin entry for your educational establishment. You are entitled to create accounts for other teachers and students in your department to access and use the resources within your educational establishment. The services can be accessed from any computer both at school and at home. However, access does not extend to any other establishments (including but not limited to associated or partner schools, subsidiaries or parent companies/organisations etc) or persons not belonging to the subscriber's specific institution and is strictly limited to one site/establishment. The registered member for an admin account is responsible for ensuring that any other person (staff or student) who has access to an account is aware of, and complies with, these terms of Access. Each person who uses an account agrees to be bound by these terms of Access. You must notify us promptly of any known or suspected unauthorised use(s) of your account(s), or any known or suspected breach of security, including loss, theft, or accidental disclosure of your admin username and password.

LOGIN DETAILS

Your access to the CoreSciences services and management of them is by a top level admin username and password. If you have purchased a site licence, you are free to create logins for teachers and students wholly within your institution and divulge those details to them for their own use of the services exclusively within your institution. Your admin login details and account should never be shared with anyone outside your institution nor should they be displayed publicly in any capacity. Once your login details are issued it is your responsibility to keep a record of them and keep them secure. You may not select a password that we, in our sole discretion, deem too easy to guess and accordingly from time to time we may apply minimum complexity requirements to passwords. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your username and password, and you will be responsible for all uses of your username and password, whether or not authorised by you. If you, as a top level admin, leaves your institution we must be notified when this happens and who the replacing top level admin will be, and whenever any other member of staff or student leaves the school it is your responsibility to ensure their accounts are disabled and/or password changed. Any unauthorised use of the services by unauthorised persons (or previously authorised persons) may be tracked, recorded and held as evidence of breach of these terms should a claim in relation to such breach subsequently arise.
